

21st Century Learning

Key Concepts

- Defining modern learning using modern tools (technology)
- Knowing how to learn
- Balancing content and skills
- Synthesizing and evaluating information
- Understanding and respect for other cultures
- Engaging and personalized environment
- Core knowledge in subject areas
- Learner driven; self directed
- 19th and 20th century learning with better tools
- Integrating core concepts with key skills will prepare students for college & the workplace
- Collaboration, digital literacy, critical thinking, problem solving
- Thinking creatively
- Implementing and communicating ideas effectively